Key features of the new program:

- Medical, travel, and security assistance including insured evacuation and repatriation services
- Coordination of medical care
- Coordination and payment of travel arrangements for you or a person you designate for certain emergency circumstances

Before you travel…

1. Register your travel at http://oca.ohsu.edu/

2. We suggest adding On Call International to the mobile phone you'll be using abroad so you know how to contact On Call any time you need them. Simply send a text message to the number 444-999 that says OnCallOHSU and you'll receive a link to easily add a digital content card right in to your phone contacts in just a few taps. It is not an app to download, just an easy way to make sure you have contact information available in case you need help while away from home. Regular text messaging rates may apply.

While traveling…

You can make a collect call, send an email, or text On Call from anywhere in the world 24 hours day to request assistance. If you need medical care, encounter a travel problem, suffer a medical emergency, or are impacted by security crisis anywhere in the world, we strongly encourage you to take advantage of services available through On Call.

Please note that you do not need to enroll in this plan. All OHSU Members are covered by this plan when outside their home country on OHSU related travel or assignment.

Review the attached Plan ID and Program Summary document carefully.

How can On Call International help?

Contact the Global Response Center if you experience a medical, personal, travel or safety problem or crisis. Your institution has partnered with On Call to provide access to immediate support should you experience any challenges when you are traveling. On Call provides you with a resource experienced in navigating through any crisis and making sure you can continue your trip, or get home safely. On Call assists during critical emergencies such as illness or injury that may require an evacuation or during a political or natural disaster event that may threaten your safety. On Call also assists with smaller problems you may not realize you have a resource for. Review a summary of services on the following pages.

If you are, or will be, hospitalized following an accident or illness that occurs while traveling, contact the On Call Global Response Center as soon as possible. On Call will facilitate payment of your medical expenses. In the event the medical facility you are in is not adequate to treat you, On Call will arrange for your medically supervised evacuation to the closest appropriate facility.

Inpatient medical expenses should be pre-certified by On Call; however, if you are unable to contact On Call while you are hospitalized and you self-pay your inpatient medical expenses, you can submit a claim for reimbursement of covered expenses. Along with your completed claim form, an explanation of the emergency and what prevented you from notifying On Call should be included.

If you need an outpatient or physician appointment for an accident or illness, you can contact the On Call Global Response Center to make an appointment and arrange payment of your medical expenses prior to your visit, this means no out of pocket expenses for you. There is no specific network, so if you choose to make your own appointment and self-pay the medical expenses, you can submit a claim for reimbursement consideration.

In the event of a political or natural disaster event which threatens your safety, contact On Call immediately. You will be connected to a security professional who can provide immediate advice to maintain safety and then assess your situation to determine appropriate next steps.

Helpful Information

- ✓ If you have access to a landline, ask the operator to connect you to On Call and reverse the charges; On Call accepts all collect calls.
- ✓ If you are utilizing a mobile phone and have any issues making an international call, you can email the Global Response Center as an alternative to request assistance, or a return call.
- ✓ Contact On Call for payment and arrangement of all Services, services are not reimbursable if you make your own arrangements/self-pay prior to notifying On Call.
- ✓ On Call is not a first responder If you are in a true emergency and need help getting to a medical facility, dial the country's equivalent to 9-1-1 to get local response.
