Education Background and Professional Experience

School/Academy/University : 'Aisyiyah University of Yogyakarta

Course name/major : Magister Midwifery

Year of Enrollment : 2018

Please describe your personality:

I would describe my personality as very outgoing and social. I am easy to talk and a good listener. I understand people and I make friends very easily. I can be quiet at first, but once you get to know me, I don't shut up. I am fun loving, but serious when necessary. I have a logical mind but understand and feel emotions as well. I always trying to improve myself as a person and act more in line with my aspirations. I am extremely sensitive and an over thinker. Lastly, I am able to keep a calm and level head wherever I am in situations of stress. I would like to consider myself, someone who can relate to anyone and any culture and background.

Briefly describe why you want to join this Program?

→ There is always something new that I have to learn more, it is called experience. Experience is one way to learn. It will be a memorable thing that we will always remember. Language and culture differences become something interesting to always learn, and also change in perspective. I will respect other people and their habits more than ever before. I will learn to adapt and socialize by considering them. Culture, make a sense of tolerance and socialization is guaranteed to increase. Eventually, self confidence will increase as the time when I spend to adapt while studying there.
